

HACETTEPE ÜNİVERSİTESİ

Developing «Refugee Uncertainty
Scale»
in Adult Syrian Refugees and Describing The Relationship Between
Uncertainty and Health Status
(PhD Thesis)

Ph.D. Candidate / Researcher:

- Gamze AKTUNA, MD, MSc, Ph.D.(c), Research Assistant

Thesis Supervisor:

- Prof. Dr. Şevkat BAHAR
ÖZVARIŞ

Aim of Study

- To develop a valid and reliable scale to measure the uncertainty of refugees
- To evaluate validity and reliability with applying to the Syrian Refugees in Ankara
- To describe the relationship between uncertainty value and health level

What have done?

March 2019 – July 2020

- Ethical approvals and permissions
- Focus Group Discussions
- Expert Workshops
- Refugee Uncertainty Scale
- Translation of scale and questionnaire

August 2020

- Selection and training of Arabic-speaking interviewers has been completed.
- ‘1-day preliminary of interviewers’ has been completed.
- Data collecting process has been completed with 660 participants by 6 interviewers and 1 supervisor.
- Data entry and data cleaning process has started.

What will be done?

August 2020 – December 2020

- Data Analysis (Validity-reliability study and descriptive analysis)
- Final version of the 'Refugee Uncertainty Scale'

THANK YOU